Your letter of April 8, 1957, addressed to Director, Central Intelligence Agency, has been referred to the undersigned for reply.

It is most gratifying to learn that your Office is preparing a General Accounting Office Policy and Procedures Manual for Guidance of Federal Agencies, which will be distributed in the near future. I am certain this manual will be of great assistance in dealing with many problems which confront the Agency daily.

My office has been established as the central control point for the requisitioning of the manual and subsequent revisions and through which inquiries relating to requirements and distribution will be channeled. Estimated requirements are attached.

Sincerely,

FOIAB3B
